Report of the Governance, Compensation and Nominating Committee on Executive Compensation

The Governance, Compensation and Nominating Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors makes decisions on compensation of the Company’s executives. The Committee establishes the compensation of Thomas B. Winmill, Chief Executive Officer, based on its evaluation of Mr. Winmill’s performance. It makes recommendations annually to the Board with respect to the non-CEO compensation as the Committee deems appropriate. The Company’s executive compensation program reflects the philosophy that compensation should reward executives for outstanding individual performance and, at the same time, align the interests of executives closely with those of stockholders. To implement that philosophy, the Company offers each of its executives a combination of base salary, annual cash bonuses, and the grant of stock options and other equity based awards. Through this compensation structure, the Company aims to reward above-average corporate performance and recognize individual initiative and achievements.

The Governance, Compensation and Nominating Committee is pleased to submit this report to the stockholders of the Company with regard to the above matters.

The Company’s Audit Committee has adopted a policy to consider for pre-approval any non-audit services proposed to be provided by the IRPAF to the Company, and any non-audit services proposed to be provided by such IRPAF to its affiliates, if any, which have a direct impact on Company operations or financial reporting. In those situations when it is not convenient to obtain full Audit Committee approval, the Chairman of the Audit Committee is delegated the authority to grant pre-approvals of auditing, audit-related, non-audit related, tax, and all other services so long as all such pre-approved decisions are reviewed with the full Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting. Such pre-approval of non-audit services proposed to be provided by the IRPAF to the Company is not necessary, however, under the following circumstances: (1) all such services do not aggregate to more than 5% of total revenues paid by the Company to the IRPAF in the fiscal year in which services are provided, (2) such services were not recognized as non-audit services at the time of the engagement, and (3) such services are brought to the attention of the Audit Committee, and approved by the Audit Committee, prior to the completion of the audit.

Changes in Company's Certifying Accountant

On January 13, 2005, the Company's Audit Committee unanimously voted to recommend to the Board that the resignation of Tait, Weller as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm be accepted, effective upon the appointment by the Company of successor auditors. The Committee further recommended to the Board that the appointment of Deloitte as the independent registered public accounting firm for the Company be approved, effective upon the successful completion of Deloitte's client acceptance procedures. Also on January 13, 2005, the Board of Directors of the Company approved such recommendations. On April 13, 2005, Deloitte advised the Company of the successful completion of Deloitte's client acceptance procedures. Accordingly, Tait, Weller resigned effective April 13, 2005. On April 18, 2005, the Company announced the successful completion of Deloitte's client acceptance procedures.

Tait, Weller's report on the Company's financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002 did not contain an adverse opinion, a disclaimer of opinion, or any qualification or modifications as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. During the Company's fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002, and through the date of termination of the engagement, there were no disagreements with Tait, Weller on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Tait, Weller, would have caused Tait, Weller to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its report. During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002 and through the date of termination of the engagement, there have been no reportable events as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-B promulgated by the SEC. The Company did not consult with Deloitte during the fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002, nor during the subsequent period to the date of its engagement regarding either the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements.

On July 6, 2006, the Company dismissed Deloitte as the Company's IRPAF. In addition, on July 6, 2006, prior to the Company notifying Deloitte of their dismissal, the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company unanimously voted to recommend to the Board the dismissal of Deloitte as the Company's IRPAF, effective upon the appointment by the Company of a successor IRPAF. The Audit Committee further recommended to the Board that the appointment of Tait, Weller as the IRPAF for the Company be approved. Also on July 6, 2006, the Board of Directors of the Company approved such recommendations.

Deloitte's report on the Company's financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2005 and December 31, 2004 did not contain an adverse opinion, a disclaimer of opinion, or any qualification or modifications as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. During the Company's fiscal years ended December 31, 2005 and December 31, 2004, and through the date of termination of the engagement, there were no disagreements with Deloitte on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure or auditing scope or procedure which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Deloitte, would have caused Deloitte to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its report.

During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2005 and December 31, 2004 and through the date of termination of the engagement, there were no reportable events as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-B or Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-K promulgated by the SEC except on June 15, 2005, the Company inadvertently filed the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 (the "2004 Report") before all pending edits and reviews were completed. Because the edits and review procedures had not been completed, the Company's Chief Financial Officer determined that the Company's financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 as filed should not be relied upon. On June 20, 2005, an amended 2004 Report was filed to correct certain errors which resulted from the inadvertent filing of the 2004 Report on June 15, 2005. The circumstances surrounding the inadvertent filing and a description of the edits which had not been completed are described in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K dated June 15, 2005 and filed with the SEC on June 17, 2005. Additionally, in connection with the preparation of the 2004 Annual Report on Form 10KSB/A, management determined that deficiencies within its disclosure controls and procedures including internal control over financial reporting existed that related to the following: (1) the Company's internal controls over SEC filings were not adequate and required further strengthening, (2) the controls over the application of APB 18, The Equity Method of Accounting for Investments in Common Stock, regarding the classification of income from equity affiliates did not operate effectively and (3) the controls over the application of APB No. 20, Accounting Changes, did not operate effectively. The circumstances surrounding such deficiencies are described in the Company's 2004 Annual Report on Form 10KSB/A filed with the SEC on March 2, 2006.

The Committee discussed the subject matter of the reportable events described above with Deloitte. Additionally, the Company authorized Deloitte to respond fully to the inquiries by Tait, Weller concerning the reportable events.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

At the meeting, the presence in person or by proxy of stockholders entitled to cast a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast at the meeting is sufficient to constitute a quorum. In the event that a quorum is not present at the meeting, or if a quorum is present but sufficient votes to approve a proposal are not received, the chair of the meeting may adjourn the meeting to a later date and time not more than 120 days after the original record date without any other notice other than announcement at the meeting. A stockholder vote may be taken for one or more proposals prior to any adjournment if sufficient votes have been received for approval. If a proxy is properly executed and returned accompanied by instructions to withhold authority to vote, represents a broker "non-vote" (that is, a proxy from a broker or nominee indicating that such person has not received instructions from the beneficial owner or other person entitled to vote shares of the Company on a particular matter with respect to which the broker or nominee does not have discretionary power) or is marked with an abstention (collectively, "abstentions"), the Company's shares represented thereby will be considered to be present at the meeting for purposes of determining the existence of a quorum for the transaction of business. Under Maryland law, abstentions do not constitute a vote "for" or "against" a matter and will be disregarded in determining "votes cast" on an issue.

In addition to the use of the mails, proxies may be solicited personally, by telephone, or by other means, and the Company may pay persons holding its shares in their names or those of their nominees for their expenses in sending soliciting materials to their beneficial owners. The Company will bear the cost of soliciting proxies. Authorizations to execute proxies may be obtained by telephonic instructions in accordance with procedures designed to authenticate the stockholder's identity. In all cases where a telephonic proxy is solicited, the stockholder will be asked to provide his or her address, social security number (in the case of an individual) or taxpayer identification number (in the case of an entity) or other identifying information and the number of shares owned and to confirm that the stockholder has received the Company's Proxy Statement and proxy card in the mail. Within 72 hours of receiving a stockholder's telephonic voting instructions and prior to the meeting, a confirmation will be sent to the stockholder to ensure that the vote has been taken in accordance with the stockholder's instructions and to provide a telephone number to call immediately if the stockholder's instructions are not correctly reflected in the confirmation. Stockholders requiring further information with respect to telephonic voting instructions or the proxy generally should contact the Company's transfer agent at 1-800-937-5449. Any stockholder giving a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is exercised by submitting to the Company a written notice of revocation or a subsequently executed proxy or by attending the meeting and voting in person.

Discretionary Authority; Submission Deadlines for Stockholder Proposals

Although no business may come before the Meeting other than that specified in the Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders, shares represented by executed and unrevoked proxies will confer discretionary authority to vote on matters which the Company did not have notice of a reasonable time prior to mailing this Proxy Statement to stockholders. The Company's Bylaws provide that in order for a stockholder to nominate a candidate for election as a Director at an annual meeting of stockholders or propose business for consideration at such meeting, written notice generally must be delivered to the Secretary of the Company, at the principal executive offices, not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to the first anniversary of the mailing of the notice for the preceding year's annual meeting. Accordingly, pursuant to such Bylaws and Rule 14a-5(e)(2) of the 1934 Act, a stockholder nomination or proposal intended to be considered at the 2007 Annual Meeting must be received by the Secretary no earlier than July 4, 2007 nor later than August 3, 2007. Proposals should be mailed to the Company, to the attention of the Company's Secretary, 11 Hanover Square, New York, New York 10005. In addition, if you wish to have your proposal considered for the inclusion in the Company's 2007 Proxy Statement, we must receive it on or before August 3, 2007 pursuant to Rule 14a-8(e)(2). The submission by a stockholder of a proposal for inclusion in the proxy statement or presentation at the Meeting does not guarantee that it will be included or presented. Stockholder proposals are subject to certain requirements under the federal securities laws and the Maryland General Corporation Law and must be submitted in accordance with the Company's Bylaws.

Compliance with Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and rules thereunder, requires the Company's Directors and officers, and any persons holding 10% or more of its common stock, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC and the American Stock Exchange. Based on the Company's review of the copies of such forms it receives, the Company believes that during the calendar year ended 2005 such persons complied with all such applicable filing requirements.

Householding of Proxy Materials

To reduce the expenses of printing and delivering duplicate copies of proxy statements, some banks, brokers, and other nominee record holders may be taking advantage of the SEC “householding” rules that permit the delivery of only one copy of these materials to stockholders who share an address unless otherwise requested. If you share an address with another stockholder and have received only one copy of this proxy statement, you may request a separate copy of these materials at no cost to you by or by writing to Bexil Corporation, 11 Hanover Square, New York, New York 10005, Attention: Secretary. For future stockholder meetings, you may request separate copies of these materials, or request that we send only one set of these materials to you if you are receiving multiple copies by calling or writing to us at the number or address given above.

Notice to Banks, Broker/Dealers and Voting Trustees and Their Nominees

Please advise the Company’s transfer agent, American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, at 1-800-937-5449 whether other persons are the beneficial owners of the shares for which proxies are being solicited and, if so, the number of copies of this Proxy Statement and other soliciting material you wish to receive in order to supply copies to the beneficial owners of shares.

It is important that proxies be returned promptly. Therefore, stockholders who do not expect to attend the meeting in person are urged to complete, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card in the enclosed stamped envelope.
